Part 4: Short Talk Questions

Listen to the following paragraph and answer the questions.

Spider-Man is a popular character from Marvel Comics, the company behind many superheroes like the X-Men and Fantastic Four. Created by Stan Lee and Steve Ditko, Spider-Man made his first appearance 59 years ago. Unlike other strong and confident superheroes, Spider-Man is an awkward teenager. In real life, he's an orphan who is being raised by his aunt and uncle. At school, he is known as nerdy Peter Parker who often gets bullied by other kids. He also worries about girls, money, and growing up. In fact, he has many of the realistic problems and concerns that creator Lee had. Spider-Man has a dark side and makes mistakes as well. However, he tries to learn from the mistakes he makes and move on.

- (C) 8. Who is Stan Lee?
 (A) The enemy of Spider-Man.
 (B) The competitor of Marvel Comics.
 (C) One of the creators of Spider-Man.
 (D) One of Peter Parker's friends at school.
- (B) 9. What is said about Spider-Man?
 (A) He is one of the Fantastic Four.

- (B) He has existed for almost six decades.
- (C) He is strong and confident.
- (D) He is more popular than the X-Men.

(A) 10. How is Spider-Man different from other superheroes?

- (A) He is not sure of himself.
- (B) He never makes mistakes.
- (C) He doesn't have super powers.
- (D) He is a middle-aged person.
