Topic: A trip to a Taiwanese temple

1. Pause before entering
2. Check these out:
 - The roof
 - The stone lion
 - The bell and drum
3. Be polite:
 - Don't stand between gods and people.
 - Don't pick up things on the tables.
4. Question the gods

OK, here we are! Let's head inside the temple. Be careful at the door. You have to step over this high part, but don't step on it! Take a moment to pause before entering and appreciate where you are. For example, look at the roof! It's a work of art! There are beautiful statues up there, like dragons and fruits, as well as bright, painted patterns.

OK, let's actually go in! Look at the stone lion. Did you see a stone ball in its big mouth? Isn't it cute? This temple also has a bell and drum hanging up high. Did you know some temples will beat the drum when the sun sets?

Now, if you want to take pictures, go ahead! Just be polite to people who are praying. Don't stand between them and the gods. Don't pick up anything on the tables, either. That is for the gods! Now, before we leave, do you want to ask a question of the gods? All we have to do is hold these little blocks, ask the gods a "yes or no" question in our minds, and then drop the blocks. Let's do it! (Apr. Unit 5)
