Part 3: Short Talk Questions

Listen to the following paragraph and answer the questions.

The Olympics Games have a long history, and the first ones were held in Greece. Going back nearly 3,000 years, they took place in the city that eventually gave this world-famous sporting event its name—Olympia. These ancient games had a purpose other than entertaining the crowds. They honored the gods through feats of strength, skill, and speed. The Games did not consist of many events though. Greek males participated in running, boxing, and horse racing. It wasn't until 1896 that the first modern Olympics were held in the Greek capital of Athens. More events were added, and males from other countries also competed. The Games were open to females for the first time four years later in Paris.

9. What was the main purpose of the ancient Olympic Games?

- (A) To entertain royal members.
- (B) To pray for a good harvest.
- (C) To show respect to the gods.
- (D) To compete for prize money.

10. When were females first allowed to compete in the Olympics Games?

- (A) At the first modern Olympics.
- (B) 3,000 years ago.
- (C) At the ones held in Athens.
- (D) In 1900.
