My talk today is about the fun facts of Spanish architect Antoni Gaudí. First, he never ate meat. This was because of his poor health. Second, he was a really bad student. He got terrible grades in school. However, he showed that even poor students can become successful. Here's another interesting fact. Gaudí's work was not popular with everyone. The famous artist Pablo Picasso hated it! Here's one final fact. Gaudí dressed well when he was young, but he stopped doing this as he got older. People thought he lived on the streets! That was why when he was in an accident, no one wanted to help him. Sadly, not being able to receive help in time led to Gaudí's death. (Jan. & Feb. Unit 11)

- C 9. What do we learn about Gaudí when he was a young man?
(A) He was friends with Picasso.
(B) He was badly hurt in an accident.
(C) He wore really nice clothes.
(D) He studied hard in school.
- B 10. What else do we learn about Gaudí from the talk?
(A) Picasso thought his work was wonderful.
(B) He was not a healthy person during his life.
(C) He lived on the streets all his life.
(D) He loved to eat all kinds of meat.
