Passage 1

Hi, welcome to the Medical History Radio Show. Before modern medicine, doctors did many strange things to try to fix problems. For example, doctors suggested smoking to relieve colds and sore throats. Now, however, we know smoking is bad for our health. In addition to that, doctors believed that letting out blood from your body could fix many health problems. They did this practice for hundreds of years! Doctors also cut holes in people's heads to relieve headaches. Back in the turn of the 20th century, many medicines had cocaine and morphine in them. We know these are addictive now, and can cause death. Soon, we'll be back with more medical treatments from history! (Unit 11)

- D 7. Before modern medicine, what did some doctors think about smoking?
 - (A) It could help people lose weight easily.
 - (B) It was neither good nor bad for people's health.
 - (C) It was bad for people, but they liked doing it anyway.
 - (D) It was a treatment for throat pain.
- A 8. According to the passage, what did doctors use to do to relieve headaches?
 - (A) Cut holes in people's heads.
 - (B) Tell patients to avoid cocaine and morphine.
 - (C) Make patients eat hot foods.
 - (D) Smoke cigarettes.

Passage 2

Hello! I'm Miss Millsap. I'm here today to talk about a story: The Ransom of Red Chief. Did you all have a chance to read it? It's a funny story, isn't it? But it also has a lesson to teach us. One reason it's funny is because unexpected things happen. The criminals kidnap the boy, but they can't control him. What's another reason it's funny? Yes, the men dream of getting easy money but in reality, things get very difficult for them. Can you think of any events that are funny in the story? Yes, the boy is kidnapped, but he enjoys it! He also does things to get on the men's nerves. So, what do you think is the lesson that we learn in the story? Yes, the lesson of the story is that crime does not pay. The men have to pay a small amount of money to give the boy back to his father! Now, this is just one of the many stories we have here at the library. You're welcome to read more! (Unit 4)

- A 9. If The Ransom of Red Chief was made into a movie, what kind of movie would it be?
 - (A) A movie that makes you laugh.
 - (B) A movie that makes you sad.
 - (C) A movie that makes you angry.
 - (D) A movie that makes you afraid.
- C 10. What is a way that The Ransom of Red Chief is different from most other stories?
 - (A) One of the main characters has a strange dream.
 - (B) The story has a lesson to teach its readers.
 - (C) Events are completely not like what you expect.
 - (D) The good guys don't win at the end of the story.
