Question 1

- C 1. M: I want to make my bones stronger. What foods can I eat?
W: Well, drinking more milk is the obvious one.
M: I know, but milk makes my stomach uncomfortable.
W: Well, how about salmon? It’s good for your bones.
M: I didn’t know that! I’ll try to eat more. What do you eat to improve your bone health?
W: Since I don’t eat meat or dairy, I have lots of tofu and vegetables.
Q: What will the man eat more of to improve his bone health? (Sep. Unit 4)

In part B, you will hear several questions or statements. Choose the best response or reply.

- D 2. What was the controversy that happened in the business meeting yesterday? (Sep. Unit 3)
(A) We’re opening a new store because we’re selling so well.
(B) It was about the flexible work hours we’ll have soon.
(C) The management decided to give us more paid vacation days.
(D) We learned the boss is stealing from the accounting department.
- A 3. The runner told me that he will persist if there’s a storm during the race. (Jul.&Aug. Unit 12)
(A) It sounds like he really wants to win the race.
(B) I don’t blame him. That would be dangerous.
(C) He shouldn’t complain, because that wouldn’t be anyone’s fault.
(D) I’m not surprised. He always quits when things get tough.

- D 4. Our plan to deal with heavy rainfall has created a lot of lush green areas. (Sep. Unit 9)
- (A) I guess the plants are smaller because they get less water now.
- (B) Well, we had to cut trees down to build flood defenses.
- (C) Yes, it's such a shame. We used to see more plants around here.
- (D) I know! The parks and river areas are really beautiful now!

In part C, you will hear several conversations between a man and a woman, and then a question following each conversation. Choose the best answer for each question.

- B 5. M: What are you doing?
W: I'm checking a board game's rules.
M: It seems fun. Tell me more about it.
W: Sure. The game's popularity is growing a lot. It's about fighting wars.
Q: What do we learn about the board game? (Jul.&Aug. Unit 10)
- (A) The man has played it several times.
- (B) More and more people are playing it.
- (C) It costs a lot more money to buy it than before.
- (D) The woman is persuading the man to buy it.
- C 6. M: I'm a bit worried about taking my young dog to the park.
W: Ah, are you afraid he will run off?
M: Yeah. He has a name tag, but still ... I don't want him to get lost.
W: Maybe you could use an app to register him.
Q: What does the woman suggest that the man do? (Sep. Unit 7)
- (A) Only take his dog to the park during the day.
- (B) Put a name tag on his dog's collar.
- (C) Put his dog's details in a phone's program.
- (D) Put up posters so people can help find his dog.
- D 7. W: I think we need to return to our base, captain.
M: Why is that, soldier?
W: We're experiencing a shortage of supplies.
M: I see. Let me make an inspection.
Q: What problem does the soldier highlight? (Jul.&Aug. Unit 16)
- (A) They are surrounded by enemy forces.
- (B) They don't have time to complete the mission.

OK, Potterheads! This afternoon, we're going to check out three places in Oxford where parts of the Harry Potter movies were filmed. Of course, these places are worth visiting for other reasons, too. We'll start with Christ Church College. It's one of the largest colleges at Oxford University. Visitors are welcome every day of the week from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Adults pay £10 to get in, but kids pay £1 less. Christ Church College's Great Hall was the inspiration for the Great Hall of Hogwarts, which appears throughout the movie series.

Next up is the Bodleian Library, one of the oldest libraries in Europe. People can visit it from Monday to Friday between 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. It's £6 for adults, but only £4 for kids. As you might expect, this library was used as the Hogwarts library, and it also appeared in many of the Harry Potter films.

Our final stop will be at New College, which is one of the best-known colleges at Oxford University. It's open every day from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Adults pay £5 to get in, but it's free for children. New College was used in Harry Potter and the Goblet of Fire for the scene where Harry learns about the dragons in a competition. (Sep. Unit 2)
