Answer the following questions about this book:

be boring

1. Did you like or dislike the book? Why?

I like this book a lot. The story is <sup>informative</sup> abundant. Characters' traits are distinct.

2. Would you recommend this book to a friend? Why or why not?

If I could, I would share the book with all my friends, even people all over the world in order to let everyone know <sup>about</sup> one of <sup>the</sup> greatest persons in the world, Ben Franklin.

3. (If the book is fiction) Who was your favorite character? Why? (If the book is non-fiction) What new information did you learn?

Of course, my favorite character is Ben Franklin. He is smart and clever. Especially, his curiosity and never gives up <sup>from</sup> let <sup>he</sup> be my icon.

4. If you could change anything about the book, what would you change? Why?

If I was <sup>the</sup> author, I would not let Debby die and Ben's son would never hate him. <sup>(How sad it was)</sup>

5. Does the book have any connection with your personal life? Explain briefly.

I think Ben's curiosity is the same as me. We <sup>are</sup> both eager to know new things, get knowledge and explore the unknown.

My Discovery 心得: (80~100 words)

In fact, before I read this book, I didn't know Ben Franklin very well. But now I admire him a lot. His curiosity made him a great scientist. "Never give <sup>up</sup> <sup>off</sup>" became a pronoun of him. I take him as my <sup>role</sup> icon. This two characteristics make me want to know more about him. This book really influences me a lot. I hope one day <sup>the</sup> "curiosity" and "never give up" will be a part of my life.
